The FC Greater Boston Bolts G16 team, coached by Tracy Kerr and assisted by Paul Kerridge and John Kerr, had their dream season end at the hands of Real Colorado (Region IV).

The team started off with a 1-0 win over the Internationals from Ohio (Region II) on Wednesday. The lone goal came from Tara Cort who gathered in a pass near midfield and literally dribbled the ball down the middle of the field past six defenders and put the ball in the back of the net from 12 yards out ten minutes into the second half. Emily Nahas played strong in goal and was supported well by Erin Kaufman, Monica Jensen, Erin Fleury and Michelle Kieltry on defense.

On Thursday, the team lost 2-0 to a highly skilled Edmond Soccer Club 90 from Oklahoma (Region III). Emily Nahas continued her fine play in goal but it was a tough day overall for the team after a two hour weather delay.

Other members of the team were Renee Hilbrunner, Dana Brill, Katrina Ellis-Ferrara, Erica Jones, Leda Tornaritis, Lauren Yelinek, Michaela Plaster, Sara Axelrod, Alicia Alex, Cassie Wagner, Katie Rausch, Shannon Van Riper, Jacqueline Greb.

The FC Greater Boston Bolts GU 16 Team won the 2006 US Youth Soccer National Championship GU 16 Fair Play Award.

Massachusetts was well represented by the Bolts.
